- Top-left: A small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol.
- Top-right: A small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol, followed by a small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol.
- Left: A small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol.
- Right: A small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol, followed by a small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol.
- Bottom-left: A small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol, followed by a small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol.
- Bottom-right: A small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol, followed by a small, stylized character resembling a lowercase 'h' or a similar symbol.

- At the top left, above the horizontal bar, is the symbol σ .
- At the top right, above the horizontal bar, is the symbol γ .
- To the left of the vertical bar, between the horizontal bar and the bottom, is the symbol E_{λ} .
- To the right of the vertical bar, between the horizontal bar and the bottom, is the symbol γ .
- To the left of the vertical bar, below the horizontal bar, is the symbol ψ .
- To the right of the vertical bar, below the horizontal bar, is the symbol γ .
- Below the horizontal bar, to the left of the vertical bar, is the symbol ψ .
- Below the horizontal bar, to the right of the vertical bar, is the symbol γ .
- At the bottom left, below the horizontal bar, is the symbol ψ .
- At the bottom right, below the horizontal bar, is the symbol γ .
